

LiveU Central

Unified management platform for easy preview and remote control

The LiveU Central management platform allows full control and monitoring of the entire ecosystem and content via any browser-supported computer or tablet, from anywhere around the world.

Live preview of all incoming feeds that can be dragged and dropped to any physical server output around the world or encoded for web streaming

Geolocation tracks units on a map, making it easy to monitor cell signals and performance

File Manager allows for the playback or export of recorded Store & Forward or FTP files

The Manage Tab gives administrators the ability to create groups and to easily generate new LU-Smart Licenses

